ISITA 2008 Financial Support for Participants

SITA (Society of Information Theory and its Applications) will support ISITA2008 participants by the funds of SITA. Please note that this support is aimed principally at scientists from countries experiencing serious economic hardship, and other student participants.

(a) Who may apply for support?

   Participants who satisfy all the following conditions:

   (1) Anyone in financial need.

   (2) Students need the endorsement of their supervisor.

   (3) Those who are not students must be scientists from countries that are experiencing serious economic hardship.

   (4) Your paper must be accepted and will be presented by the applicant at ISITA2008.

(b) How much money is provided?

   A part of the transportation cost may be granted depending on the amount needed.

(c) When are the funds paid?

   The fund is paid during the symposium after your presentation. Financial support is issued at the Organizing Committee office by showing the signature of the session chairperson who approved your presentation. Please note that the Organizing Committee doesn't pay the support before your presentation.

(d) When is the deadline of application?

   The deadline of application is September 7, 2008. You need to register for the Symposium before applying for financial assistance.

   Notification of the result is October 15, 2008.

(e) Where to send the application?

   Fill in the application form of next page and send it via fax to

     To: +81-774-93-5158 (c/o Jun Muramatsu)

   Please note that we accept the application only via Fax.

   An acknowledgment of receiving your fax application will be sent to you via e-mail within a week. Inquiries are accepted by e-mail only addressed to ISITA2008support@sita.gr.jp. The subject of the e-mail should be "Inquiry about ISITA2008 Financial Support."

This financial support and IEEE IT Society Japan Chapter Travel Support Award are independent projects. Therefore, if you wish, you can apply for both of them. However, the winner of IEEE IT Society Japan Chapter Travel Support Award is excluded from the recipients of this financial support.
